	日本事情 Some Aspects of Japan	Yoshio Yamaguchi	Basics	2	Elective	Foreign students
科目の概要
This class will introduce the foreign students to some aspects of Japanese popular culture: Japanese folk tales (handed down form generation to generation), English rakugo (comic story telling performed by storyteller), Takarazuka (all-female theatrical troupe), anime (Japanese animation, Studio Ghibli's work by Takahata, and another anime by a younger director, Hosoda), and others. In addition to these, if we have enough time, some shows on TV wii be introduced to the students. Outside the campus, students will also pay a visit to the near-by miso factory, and temple and shrine.
学習・教育内容			到達目標
1 Japanese and the Western folk tales. 2 Rakugo-Japanese storytelling:Shijaku's English rakugo and Kaishi's adventurous trip around the states. 3 Takarazuka's stage and its documentary 4 Japanese anime:My Neighbors The Yamadas and Wolf Children. 5 Field trip to the nearby miso factory and religious places.			apan and West in folk tales: monsters and dwarfs, rich man stories, and good old man vs. bad old man, etc. 2 Traditional entertainment--Rakugo: Focused on funniness, the art goes back to the Edo period. New trends foreigners and performers show. 3 Takarazuka--its performance on stage, and how foreigners take a look at the music school. 4 What Japanese animations depict. 5 Japanese cuisine and religious life.
